

Quickly!

The verb in each sentence is underlined. Circle the adverb

An adverb is a word that describes a verb.
It can tell where, when, or how something happens.

Tomorrow I'm going to the dentist.

The man whistled cheerfully.

The stairs creaked loudly.

Jenny hid quietly in the covers.

Yesterday I ate a big slice of apple pie.

Tim jumped noisily on his bed.

The ice cream melted quickly in the sun.

Kyle played happily with his toys.

I carefully placed the egg on the table.