

Instructions:

- ☐ 1. Cut out the strips of paper.
- ☐ 2. Circle all the key sequencing words (e.g., first, then, after, later, in the beginning).
- ☐ 3. Place the sentences in the correct order.
- ☐ 4. Paste the strips in the correct order in the boxes below.

After hearing her teacher's stories, she started to feel encouraged to use her glasses.

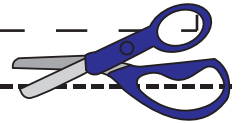

In the beginning, Ava was discouraged.

In the end, she was proud of wearing her glasses because she could see clearly.

Then, the teacher shared ideas about how spectacles can change our vision of the world.

Next, she decided that wearing glasses to see was a good thing.

Ava didn't want to use her spectacles, so she could not see the board.

Name: _____

Date: _____

This is the correct sequential order.

In the beginning, Ava was discouraged.

Ava didn't want to use her spectacles, so she could not see the board.

Then, the teacher shared ideas about how spectacles can change our vision of the world.

After hearing her teacher's stories, she started to feel encouraged to use her glasses.

Next, she decided that wearing glasses to see was a good thing.

In the end, she was proud of wearing her glasses because she could see clearly.