

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer Key

Singular and Plural Nouns in Context

A singular noun is one person, place, thing, or idea.

Example: one igloo

A plural noun is more than one person, place, thing, or idea.

Example: several igloos

Part 1:

Directions: Read the sentence. Choose the singular or plural noun that best completes the sentence.

The wind was cold on that winter (day, days). Jeremiah and Shannon loved when the temperature dropped and (snow, snows) covered the ground. They wore (jacket, jackets), gloves, hats, (scarf, scarves), and warm socks on their feet. Even with (boot, boots) on, their feet would still get cold. If snow got inside their boots, their (toe, toes) could freeze! Their playtime outside could be cut short.

Their mom allowed them to play outside for an (hour, hours). When she noticed their red noses, she called them to come back inside. On the kitchen table, she had hot chocolate in (mug, mugs) waiting for them. The kids took off their boots and snow (gear, gears). They enjoyed the warm (drink, drinks) their mom had prepared.

Building a snow (fort, forts) and having a snowball (fight, fights) was exhausting for Jeremiah and Shannon. The kids rested quietly in the warmth of their house in front of the fire for the rest of the (day, days).

Part 2: Student answers will vary

Directions: Write a paragraph about a winter day. Use at least three singular nouns and three plural nouns. Then, record your singular and plural nouns in the chart.

Singular	Plural